LEGACY GIFT

Leave a legacy through planned giving that could make an impact for generations to come

- Remember HIAH in your will or living trust
- Designate HIAH as a beneficiary on your IRA, 401(K), bank account, life insurance policy, or other financial and investment instruments
- Set up a charitable annuity

Planned giving to our nonprofit museum allows you to take care of your family first and possibly even reduce the amount of estate tax your beneficiaries will owe, while investing in an important cause.

The Historic Indian Agency House will steward your gift in the way in which you specify its use, whether toward an endowment, a capital project, seasonal programming, collections and exhibits, general operating costs, or some other application of your choosing. Or you may designate that its use be decided by the HIAH board of directors to provide the greatest benefit at the time of its receipt. Let us know how we may be of assistance as you consider a legacy gift.
